

Termination Clauses

Termination With Cause. (Agency) shall have the right to terminate this Agreement upon notice if: (1) Provider fails to meet any one or more of the qualifications set forth herein, including, without limitation, requirements for licensure; (2) Provider breaches any other material term of this Agreement and this breach is not cured within the (30) day notice period; (3) Provider fails to maintain liability insurance, as required; or (5) Provider receives a determination by a government entity or review body that it has violated any law or is engaged in or is engaging in fraud, waste or abuse. Provider shall also have the right to terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) days written notice if there is a material breach by (Agency) of this Agreement and this breach is not cured within the thirty (30) day notice period.

Breach of Agreement. Except for circumstances giving rise to the Termination With Cause section, if either party fails to comply with or perform when due any material term or condition of this Agreement, the other party shall notify the breaching party of its breach in writing stating the specific nature of the material breach, and the breaching party shall have thirty (30) days to cure the breach. If the breach is not cured to the reasonable satisfaction of the non-breaching party within said thirty (30) day period, the non-breaching party may terminate this Agreement by providing written notice

Termination without Cause. Either party may terminate this Agreement, without cause or penalty, by giving the other party sixty (60) days advance written notice of its intent to terminate this Agreement.

Upon termination of this Agreement, Provider will cooperate with (Agency) and other providers to arrange for transition of care of patients to other providers.

Continuance of Care – Termination. Provider shall, upon termination of this Agreement for reasons other than the grounds set forth in the “Termination With Cause” section of this Agreement, provide and be compensated for Covered Services rendered to covered individuals receiving treatment at the time of termination, under the terms and conditions of this agreement until the earlier of ninety (90) days after the effective date of such termination or until such covered individuals are discharged from the provider’s care.

Termination of Services to the Child. In the event of termination of services, all reasonable efforts will be made to give the Buyer ten (10) days written notice prior to termination of services to the child, unless there are extenuating circumstances making it impossible for ten (10) days notice, than such notice shall be as soon as practical. Such written notice shall include the specific reason(s) for termination services to the child.
