OFFICE OF COMPREHENSIVE SERVICES
Administering the Comprehensive Services Act for At-Risk Youth and Families

ADMINISTRATIVE MEMO #12-15

TO: CPMT CHAIRS
CSA COORDINATORS

FROM: SUSAN CUMBIA CLARE

DATE: OCTOBER 17, 2012

SUBJECT: CSA KNOWLEDGE CENTER

The Office of Comprehensive Services is pleased to announce the opening of The CSA Knowledge Center, an on-line training site designed to enhance understanding and support implementation of the Comprehensive Services Act.

The site is available at the following link: CSA Knowledge Center Portal. The link is available on the CSA Website's Home Page.

Access to The CSA Knowledge Center is open to all:

- State employees and existing users of the Commonwealth's Knowledge Center may enter the CSA site with an existing COV-KC log-in.
- Non-state employees and new users may register at the site to create a log-in.

On-line courses currently available:

- CAN CSA PAY? (course # CSA001)
- CSA Audit Self-Assessment Training (course#CSA002)

We are excited to extend this easily accessible training opportunity to communities. We invite you to take advantage of the trainings currently available and watch for the addition of new courses soon. Please share this site with your CPMT members, FAPT members, and case managers. Questions about the site may be directed to the Office of Comprehensive Services at (804) 662-9816.
